v.		:	ORDER
U.S. GOVERNMENT, et al.,		:	October 14, 2008

This matter having come before the Court upon the filing of Plaintiff’s Complaint without prepayment of fees, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a); and this Court having sua sponte screened the Complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1915(e)(2)(B) to determine if it is frivolous or fails to state a claim; and it appearing that Plaintiff’s Complaint on its face is frivolous in that, giving Plaintiff all reasonable inferences, the Complaint fails to state a claim and raises no federal ground upon which relief may be granted;¹

IT IS THEREFORE on this 14th day of October, 2008,

¹ Plaintiff claims that he is running for the U.S. Senate and that in an attempt to interfere with his right to a fair election Defendants have, inter alia, bugged his house and car, and tried to kill him by poisoning his food and delivering his newspaper. While Plaintiff alleges that this Court has jurisdiction over the General Election for U.S. Senate and this Court is “responsible for providing a fair election under our Constitution,” he fails to indicate which federal election law or other law has been violated, whether there is a private right of action to bring the instant claim, whether the NSA and U.S. Government are appropriate Defendants and whether the remedies he seeks are even available to him. Without a more clear statement of his claim, this Court is unable to determine whether it has jurisdiction over this action and Defendants are not sufficiently on notice as to the substance of Plaintiff’s claim against them.

ORDERED that Plaintiff's Complaint is DISMISSED without prejudice;² and it is further ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court is directed to CLOSE this case.

/s/ Faith S. Hochberg
Hon. Faith S. Hochberg, U.S.D.J.

² Because the Court is dismissing Plaintiff's Complaint, his application for pro bono counsel is moot.
